

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 1

- 11:00 AM Lunch at the elegantly rustic Otium by Chef Timothy Hollingsworth, named a Rising Star Chef of the Year by the James Beard Foundation
- 1:00 PM Receive exclusive access to a modern Los Angeles landmark with a private tour of the Frank Gehry-designed Walt Disney Concert Hall
- 5:00 PM Enjoy upscale California wines and cuisine over dinner at the iconic Napa Valley Grille
- 7:00 PM The evening continues with a cocktail party at the award-winning Geffen Playhouse, including an opportunity to mix and mingle with Geffen Playhouse staff and Trustees
- 8:00 PM Premium seating for Charles Dickens' A Christmas Carol at Geffen Playhouse, starring Tony Award winner and UC San Diego M.F.A. graduate Jefferson Mays (Playhouse's I Am My Own Wife), and directed by Tony Award nominee Michael Arden (Playhouse's The Hunchback of Notre Dame)
- 10:00 PM Top the evening off with post-performance sips and a meet & greet with Jefferson Mays

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 2

- 10:30 AM Brunch at Chef Neal Fraser and Amy Knoll Fraser's acclaimed Redbird, featuring Modern American cuisine that highlights the multi-cultural influences of Los Angeles
- 1:00 PM The trip culminates with premium seating for the Playhouse-born musical Come From Away at the Ahmanson Theatre
- Playhouse Artistic Director Christopher Ashley won the Tony Award for his direction of this theatrical phenomenon, which is winning the hearts of people the world over – from New York and Toronto to the UK and Australia. Fall in love with the show all over again at this exciting LA stop on the show's national tour.

The cast of Come From Away, photo by Matthew Murphy