Breakdowns:

Caroline and Rolan's first (or third?) date begins as a pretty average night that ends at Caroline's house in an upscale Chicago suburb. But when the city around them begins exhibiting signs that something is terribly wrong, they quickly have to learn to trust each other to stand a chance against the horrors outside the gate.

All ethnicities encouraged to submit.

Caroline - Female. Millennial. Person of color. Fast talking. Doesn't take any crap, keeps her own dilemmas private, incredibly capable at throwing silent shade. Hasn't connected to a person in a long long time. Little self-involved, but has been through some real things. Trying to do the right thing. Messed up in the past. Rarely happens.

Rolan - Male. Millennial. Person of color. Fast talking, has a bit of a stammer, that doesn't stop him. Would never admit he's a hipster. Eager to please. Cautious but incredibly giving. Great at comfort and support, scary when silent; people pleaser.

Josephine – Female. A baby-boomer (60's). Any ethnicity. Old school Chicago girl with a big heart that's never to be confused with a doormat. Will slap you in the face if you need to wake up. Always knows what to do. Mind like a steel trap. Never forgets.

Auditions will be by invitation only. To submit for PUT YOUR HOUSE IN ORDER, please send your headshot and resume to auditions@ljp.org. Materials should be sent as attachments and not embedded in the email.
