ABOUT THE PLAYHOUSE

MISSION
La Jolla Playhouse advances theatre as an art form and as a vital social, moral and political platform by providing unfettered creative opportunities for the leading artists of today and tomorrow. With our youthful spirit and eclectic, artist-driven approach we will continue to cultivate a local and national following with an insatiable appetite for audacious and diverse work.

HISTORY
La Jolla Playhouse was founded in 1947 by Gregory Peck, Dorothy McGuire and Mel Ferrer and was revived in 1983 by Des McAnuff. Christopher Ashley now serves as The Rich Family Artistic Director, and Debby Buchholz serves as Managing Director. La Jolla Playhouse is an internationally-renowned not-for-profit theatre situated on the University of California, San Diego campus. Each year, 100,000+ patrons attend performances at the Playhouse and thousands of students and adults participate in the theatre’s Learning and Engagement programs.

With 33 Broadway transfers, 105 world premieres and a Tony Award for Artistic Director, Christopher Ashley, La Jolla Playhouse’s innovative productions have merited over 300 major honors, including 38 Tony Awards for plays originating at La Jolla Playhouse and the Tony Award for Outstanding American Regional Theatre in 1993. Playhouse-originated productions have transferred to Broadway, Off-Broadway and to regional theatres including American theatres like the Kennedy Center, Chicago’s Goodman Theatre and the Humana Festival, and to international venues in London, Brussels, Rotterdam and Moscow.

OUR AUDIENCE
More than 100,000 patrons participate in the Playhouse mainstage plays during the course of a season. These patrons are highly educated and more affluent than the majority of the U.S. A survey of Playhouse audience members indicated that subscribers have an average income of $123,000, with 63% holding post-graduate degrees. Single ticket buyers show an average income $105,000, with 54% holding post-graduate degrees. The audience is dominated by patrons who live in La Jolla, Rancho Santa Fe, Del Mar and Carlsbad. An analysis of the Playhouse audience using the geo-demographic Prizm Segmentation System finds high concentrations of the most desirable target segments in terms of affluence, education and income-producing assets. These segments are at least 300 times more likely to be found in Playhouse audiences than in the general San Diego population.
