IN LOVING MEMORY Jordan Ressler, 1981-2004

A Film and Theatre graduate from Cornell University, Jordan was an adventurer with a passion for the arts. Here at La Jolla Playhouse, he served as an assistant to Des McAnuff on Billy Crystal's 700 Sundays and was the script supervisor for Jersey Boys.

The Jordan Ressler Charitable Fund of the Jewish Community Foundation was established by his parents, Vivien and Jeffrey Ressler, to honor their son and his love of theatre and film.

SPOTLIGHT ON THE REVELLE SOCIETY

THE Revelle
 LEGACY SOCIETY

Ellen and Roger Revelle worked to revive live theatre during their lifetimes through volunteer leadership and charitable giving. Their legacy plan now sustains this effort at La Jolla Playhouse for future generations, thus allowing the Playhouse to solidify its place as a leader among American theatres; an incubator for emerging artists, established artists and new works; and a significant provider of arts education in the region.

The Playhouse continues to honor Ellen and Roger Revelle's philanthropic legacy through a special group named for them – The Revelle Legacy Society. This society allows us to recognize devoted friends who have established a planned gift benefitting the Playhouse through bequests in wills and trusts, beneficiary designations on retirement accounts and live insurance, and other estate-planning vehicles.
