ABOUT LA JOLLA PLAYHOUSE

La Jolla Playhouse is a place where artists and audiences come together to create what’s new and next in the American theatre, from Tony Award-winning productions, to imaginative programs for young audiences, to interactive experiences outside our theatre walls. Founded in 1947 by Gregory Peck, Dorothy McGuire and Mel Ferrer, the Playhouse is currently led by Tony Award winner Christopher Ashley, the Rich Family Artistic Director of La Jolla Playhouse, and Managing Director Debby Buchholz. The Playhouse is internationally renowned for the development of new plays and musicals, including mounting 120 world premieres, commissioning more than 70 new works, and sending 36 productions to Broadway, garnering a total of 42 Tony Awards, as well as the 1993 Tony Award for Outstanding Regional Theatre.

La Jolla Playhouse is committed to diversity in all areas of our work, on and off stage. We lead with our values and encourage individuals with unique perspectives to apply. La Jolla Playhouse is proud to be an Equal Opportunity Employer (EOE).

ABOUT THE POSITION

The Special Events Manager oversees the planning and execution of all special events for the Playhouse; directly manages the Special Events Coordinator and other event staff; is responsible for securing In-Kind Support (in collaboration with the Corporate Relations Manager) to off-set the costs associated with producing and fulfilling benefits for donors; plays a key role in the planning and execution of the annual fundraising events, Gala and Innovation Night; manages event budgets; and other events and duties, as assigned.

ESSENTIAL JOB DUTIES

• The Special Events Manager will professionally execute approximately 75 high quality institutional events annually (for Philanthropy and other Playhouse departments) with the goal of cultivating and building relationships between La Jolla Playhouse and its prospects, patrons and donors.
• Steward existing in-kind partnerships and secure new in-kind relationships annually; then manage these donations for accounting, budgeting and tax purposes.
• Work in tandem with an outside Gala consultant to ensure the annual Gala fundraiser is an organizational success.
• In close coordination with the Corporate Relations Manager, plan and execute the annual Innovation Night fundraiser (a corporate-focused event celebrating the tech and bio-tech communities of San Diego), ensuring the event remains within expense budget.
• Manage vendors for events, including scheduling of delivery, pick-up and payment.
• Manage event budgets, tracking income and expense and staying within budget.
• Work with the Deputy Director of Philanthropy and Artistic team to determine event décor, entertainment, venues and pricing strategy, when relevant.
• Coordinate with the Operations and Production departments for each event, requesting space and technical support.
• Create diagrams, with assistance from the Special Events Coordinator, of each event to ensure the Playhouse is within safety guidelines; forwarding to appropriate parties for approvals.
• Work with the Artistic department to coordinate event entertainment.
• Work closely with all Philanthropy staff, other Playhouse departments and the Board of Trustees to achieve increasingly successful fundraising events.
• Provide a high level of customer service to Board, donors, patrons, event guests and vendors.
• Work with the Individual Giving Manager to coordinate and deploy specific event invitations (both mailed and electronic).
• Utilize the Tessitura database to track invitation lists, event attendance, in-kind donations, and vendor stewardship.
